Four Accidents In Area Send Seven To Hospital Here

Four traffic accidents during the weekend sent seven people to the Tahoe Forest Hospital.

Three vehicles, including a school bus, were involved in a crash along Donner Lake Saturday night at 11:15 which hospitalized three victims. According to the California Highway Patrol, the school bus, driven by Darrell C. Harrington, 49, Truckee, had stopped to discharge students from the high school who had attended the basketball game at Loyalton.

A car operated by Douglas Buchanan, 16, Truckee stopped back of the bus when a second car, driven by Mrs. Loretta Martha Pankoke, 45, Truckee crashed into the rear of the Buchanan vehicle, knocking the latter into the rear of the bus.

The impact knocked Carl Jensen, 17, Truckee, out of the Buchanan car and he suffered minor injuries. Mrs. Pankoke suffered a broken leg and her passenger, James Scardina, 45, was hurled through the windshield and it required some 200 stitches to close the scalp wounds.

None of the passengers in the school bus was injured.

Proceeds from the game will go toward defraying costs of operating the league during this season, according to Joe Moses who arranged the local appearance of the visiting team. John Firpo manages the local league and will pit the best players against the Clowns.

In a preliminary game, the Kings Beach 8th graders will meet the Tahoe Truckee Frosh at 6:30 p. m.

The Harlem Clowns stage all the comic routines of clown basketball plus a lot of impromptu stuff. They often concoct gags as they go along, like the night one of the Clowns borrowed a camera from a fan and took his own picture.

Fans get a big laugh out of the act when one of the Harlem Clowns takes over the referee's job—he never calls fouls on the opposing team—he calls them on his team-mates for such violations as "Travelling without a suitcase!" or "Funny Stuff." Then the regular referee is usually called on to take a free shot.

Recently reported that Nugget owner, Jim Kelley purchased Incline property and was building a home in Kings Beach. This is true. However, our editor erroneously added a "Mrs." This is made Nevada's most eligible bachelor most unhappy and we hasten to correct this error.

Speaking of eligibility, Jim Kelley is not the only bachelor connected with this organization. John Maloney and Dale McHatton are both in this category.

Visiting the North Shore area last week was Ann Wyatt, former Crystal Bay resident. Ann is circulating a petition to the Governor of Nevada and the parole board asking that her husband, Dr. Thomas D. Wyatt, Carson City, be freed from Nevada State Prison where he is serving one to two and a half years for attempted abortion.

Dr. Wyatt is owner of Carson Hot Springs and was convicted in February 1961 and imprisoned in March 1962 after appeals to the state supreme court failed. Dr. Wyatt's application for parole was turned down at a recent meeting of the board and he is not eligible to come before the next board session which is scheduled in May 1963.

The petition urges Gov. Grant Sawyer and the Nevada Parole Board to free him of the offense for which he has been convicted or, in the alternative, allow him to appear before the board of parole in May 1963 to apply for his immediate release on parole. He will have served 15 months of his sentence in May.

An estimated 80 0people have signed the petition which has been circulated in Carson City, Reno and the Lake Tahoe area.

Most interesting person who has visited our area for months was writer John Wesley Noble. Readers of the Saturday Evening Post will be familiar with his work, which has also appeared in Holiday Magazine, Readers Digest, and 30 other major magazines. Other writings include "Never Plead Guilty" the story of San Francisco attorney, Jake Ehrlich, and most recent "I Want to Quit Winners" the first Harold Smith book.

Noble is a resident of Oakland and a former newspaper man at one time with the Oakland Tribune. Found mutual friends in former Senator Bill Knowland and the late drama critic, Wood Soanes.

At the present time Mr. Noble is working with Smith on a sequel to the winner "I Want to Quit Winners." However, plans for the immediate future include a trip to Europe, Africa and the Holy Land and as Smith makes spur of the moment decisions when traveling further destinations may be included in the itinerary.

The Sno-Ball sponsored by the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce at the Nevada Room of the Nevada Lodge, Saturday night, December 15, promises from advance ticket sales and interest to be the social event of the winter season.

Lorraine Ducharme is lending her talents and creating a Money Tree that will be given away. Velda Farris and her committee are in charge of the Tree, Alysmae Schultz, Betty Vance, Marilyn Fugazi, Audrey Brehler, Gwen Robinson, Bernice May, Ruth West, Norma Wilson, Vivian McIntire, Helen Elliott and Twila Wilson. Shirley Wagoner Hulse will assist Audrey Welch. No host cocktail hour will be followed by a beautiful turkey buffet. Gifts from merchants around the lake area and Reno have been given to the chamber for the participants in the queen contest. Gift certificate for $100 at Menards in Reno has been given by Jim Kelley of the Tahoe and Reno Nugget. Complete list will be given of those contributing to this event.

M. C. of the Sno-Ball will be a surprise guest but promises to be one everyone will be anxious to hear.

Tickets are available at the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce office in Kings Beach or any member of the committees mentioned.

Women's Society of Christian Service met at the Incline Beach home of Pearl Draney Wednesday. Discussion of the various activities the WSCS participates in the church was the main business of the meeting. The plans for a card party at the home of Adeline Gunkel on Monday were completed.

Among those present were Eda Judy, Theresa Denton, Clara Van Hooser, Louise Anderson, Louise Walter, Beth Smith, Betty Mae Helm, Adeline Gunkel, Ruth Mizner, Fran Thompkins, Noreen Marx and the hostess, Pearl Draney. Refreshments were served at the meetings close.

Lydia Circle of the Kings Beach Methodist Community Church met at the home of Pearl Draney at Incline Beach on Monday night. Present at the meeting were Ann Mandeville, Noreen Marx, Dorothy Corbin, Lou Mills, Mary Mandeville, Lou's mother, Veda Mae Riley, Beverly Greg, Phyllis Achziger, and the hostess.

Mrs. D. L. Reese will be in charge of the church nursery on Sundays during services, due to the efforts of the Circle.

Next meeting will be January 7, 8 p. m. at the parsonage.

Happy birthday to the following celebrants :Marg Walker, Tahoe Vista; Theresa Sutton, Jack Farris, Velda Farris, Inez Jordan, Kings Beach; Dorothy Beck, Tahoe Vista, and a trio who share the same natal day, December 9, Harry S. Hooper, Fred Baker and Robert Fugazi.

Marlea Draney of Incline Beach enplaned to Salt Lake City to enter the Shrine Hospital for a checkup. Plans to visit and shop before returning home.

Friends were shocked to hear that Mrs. William (Helen) Fries of Kings Beach was in a car accident last week and for a time was on the critical list at Carson Tahoe Hospital at Carson City. The Red Cross located and flew son, Steve, home from Iceland. Helen's car went out of control and hit a rock, breaking her jaw and causing facial injuries. Bill reports that she will probably be home by time this goes to print, friends may address her there. Speedy recovery, Helen.

Carlton and Edna Konarske of Incline Beach have returned home after a motor trip to Michigan where they visited friends and relatives. A couple of days were spent in Las Vegas on the way home.

Highlight of their trip was the 80th birthday party for Carlton's mother, Mabel Konarske, at Roseville, Michigan.

Smokey, the Konarske's German schnauser, made the trip with them and they report he was a most interested passenger—stood all the way so he wouldn't miss anything.

Speaking of the Konarskes, reminds us of the Nevada Lodge of which Carlton is manager and Edna a working partner. The expansion building is and has been underway with completion plans for late spring. Addition of a show room, restaurant, enlarging of the casino and a larger coffee shop are included in the plans. Your reporter peeked at the construction underway and to all indications the Nevada Lodge will be twice its present size.

Women's Club of North Tahoe met Monday, December 3, at the Tahoe Nugget. Election of officers and business meeting followed luncheon. Mrs. William J. Coulter presided at the meeting as outgoing president. New officers elected were Mrs. Ellis Whitley, president; Mrs. James Hume, vice president; Mrs. John Flagg, treasurer; and Mrs. Otto Walter, secretary. Installation of the officers and tea is scheduled for January meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Black at Incline Beach.

Attending the meeting were Jerri Rayburn, Theresa Sutton, Emmajean Hume, Inez Jordan, Jacquie Black, Jetta Steward, Bernice May, Virginia Flagg, Pearl Draney, Carrie Gray, Mrs. Howard, Genevieve Galath, Alice Sorensen, Mildred Matthias, Dolores Brady, Ruth Mizner, Dorothea Whitley, Louise Walter, Bethel Van Tassel and Mabel Coulter.

Honyemooning at the North Shore of Lake Tahoe last weekend were Bob and Mary Smiley of Sparks. When in Reno Mary is at Harolds Club and Bob at the Primadonna.

Stanley Baker of Tahoe Vista sustained a sprained knee at the basketball game with the Ernie Marier basketball team at Tahoe-Truckee High last week. Is recuperating but on crutches. Sympathies, Stan, the only consolation is no snow to hobble through. This is speaking from personal experience of six weeks crutch-hobbling in last winter's worst snow storms. Get well soon.

Ceta Hooper of Brockway and Bethel Van Tassel of Tahoe Vista were pleased to learn of the birth of a baby daughter, to nephew, Michael McFarlane and wife, Gerry, at Yuba City. Cynthia Lynn was born on December 2. The McFarlanes have a year and a half old son, Gary. Great grandmother, Martha Holmes, was also pleased, having five grandsons, one great grandson and no granddaughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brady and children, Linda and Michael, are completing construction of a new home in Kings Beach. The Bradys come from San Fernando.

Friends will be sad to learn of the passing of Lola Vinson on December 3. Mrs. Vinson had been hospitalized since Labor Day weekend at Auburn and was an employe of the North Shore Club for the past several years.

Square dancing under the direction of Ted Berrium will be a Friday night activity at Carpenter Hall in Kings Beach. All square

THE CHANGING SCENE

ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR EVENTS AT THE COUNTY FAIR OF 50 YEARS AGO, WAS THE TEAM PLOWING CONTEST. ALTHOUGH THE CONTESTS REMAIN ON THE PROGRAM AT SOME COUNTY FAIRS TODAY, THE WORK HORSES ARE KEPT FOR SENTIMENTAL REASONS OR "HOBBY" PURPOSES.

OF MORE PRACTICAL INTEREST TO FARMERS ATTENDING COUNTY FAIRS TODAY ARE THE TRACTOR CONTESTS. POWERFUL TRACTORS AND MOTOR FUELS MAKE THIS COMPETITION EXCITING. HERE, FOR EXAMPLE, AN LP-GAS FUEL TRACTOR PULLS AHEAD. LP-GAS IS GROWING IN POPULARITY AS TRACTOR FUEL BECAUSE ITS 110 PLUS OCTANE RATING DELIVERS GREATER POWER.

BUT, EMMY LOU... I DON'T WANT TO GO HOME!

I'M DEPRESSED JUST THINKING ABOUT LEAVING!

OKAY, ALVIN.. I GET THE HINT...

I'LL ASK MOM IF YOU CAN STAY FOR DINNER AGAIN
